We did the tour of Taylor's Port lodge and then came back for dinner that night. The City of Porto is amazing at night and we had a great view from the restaurant.
 Went for lunch today (11th Feb 2009) after tour/tasting. Excellent service. Awesome views. Dish of the day was very good (steak with roquefort sauce) and reasonably priced, 14/15e I think. Wine recomm...
 After having visted Porto extensively (twice), this was our last adventure in dining in this beautiful city... It was a great experience. The view of Porto from the Port wine caves is the best around ...
